RICHARD CHEESE & LOUNGE AGAINST THE MACHINE
TOMORROW'S STANDARDS TODAY!

OFFICIAL BIO

America's loudest lounge singer Richard Cheese performs swingin' Vegas versions of rock, rap, and Top40 hits, "swankifying" contemporary songs into traditional pop vocal standards. With his Lounge Against The Machine swing band, Cheese has released more than 30 albums, sold a zillion CDs, LPs, and album downloads, and played hundreds of sellout concerts around the world, from Las Vegas to London, from Portland to Portugal, and from Hollywood to Honolulu.

The finger-snapping, liquor-lapping, night-capping crooner first stepped into the spotlight in 2000 with his debut album LOUNGE AGAINST THE MACHINE. This critically acclaimed CD featured "swankified" versions of alternative rock songs, such as CREEP, LAST RESORT, and NOOKIE, arranged for a big band sound. Thanks to airplay on radio stations coast to coast, including KROQ/Los Angeles, Z100/New York City, and the nationally-syndicated Dr. Demento Show, Cheese soon found an audience that shared his love of lounge music, including rockstar Brian Setzer, who hired Richard Cheese & Lounge Against The Machine to perform at his private Christmas party with The Stray Cats!

Soon, Cheese landed a gig as the co-host and bandleader on MTV's Say What Karaoke series. He was also interviewed in 2001 on CNN, profiled in The Los Angeles Times, and featured as a category on VH1's Rock 'N' Roll Jeopardy. Cheese headlined at The House Of Blues in Los Angeles, The Venetian Hotel in Vegas, and at radio station festivals like 91X X-Fest in San Diego, the WHFS HFsmas Nutcracker concert at Washington DC's Patriot Center, and the Y100 Festival at Philadelphia's Tweeter Center. Cheese was also hired to entertain at Blink182 drummer Travis Barker's first wedding!

In 2002, Cheese was back in blacktie with his TUXICITY CD, an album of uncensored alternative, rap, and pop covers, including loungey remakes of BABY GOT BACK, HOT FOR TEACHER, and CHOP SUEY. Cheese's popularity grew with sell-out concerts around the U.S.A., plus a slot as the opening act for the Brian Setzer Orchestra Christmas Concert at the world famous Universal Amphitheater in Los Angeles. Cheese also made radio appearances on The Opie & Anthony Show, The Jonathon Brandmeier Show, and The Howard Stern Show, sang live on Fox News Channel's Fox & Friends morning show, and appeared a dozen times as the Vegas house band on NBC's Last Call With Carson Daly. The standing-room-only concerts continued in 2003, as Cheese criss-crossed the country playing venues from the Mercury Lounge in New York City to Sunset Station Casino in Vegas.

Cheese returned in 2004 with his I'D LIKE A VIRGIN CD, an intoxicating collection of "loungeified" covers, including a snazzy remake of GIN AND JUICE, and an inspired version of Michael Jackson's BEAT IT accompanied by a children's choir. Cheese performed on ABC-TV's Jimmy Kimmel Live, and his cheesey version of Disturbed's song DOWN WITH THE SICKNESS was featured in the 2004 Universal motion picture Dawn Of The Dead, thanks to director and superfan Zack Snyder. RC&LATM played concerts around the globe in 2004, including a private party performance at the Playboy Mansion, and sellout gigs in Los Angeles, New Orleans, Vegas, Portland, Seattle, Honolulu, Portugal, and London.
